

On occasions other than meetings for any stated purpose or celebration, members may wear a rosette of the prescribed ribbon and pattern or such other design as the Society may approve, in the upper button hole of the left lapel of the coat. The Treasurer shall procure and issues the rosettes to members.

ARTICLE X.

Alterations and Amendments.

No alterations or amendments of the Constitution of this Society shall be made unless notice thereof be duly given in writing, signed by the member proposing the same, at a meeting of the Society, and unless the same shall be adopted at a subsequent meeting by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, and in the notices issued for such meeting the fact shall be stated that a proposed amendment to the Constitution will be considered, and the substance or purpose of the amendment be set forth.

BY-LAWS, INDIANA SOCIETY.

SECTION I.

Fees, Dues and Contributions.

Amended 10/19/28
The initiation fee shall be two dollars; the annual dues ^{two} ~~three~~ dollars, payable on or before the first day of October in each year; retroactive to Oct. 1 '28

Provided, That all new members shall pay pro rata from the day of their admission. The payment at one time of fifty ($50) dollars shall constitute a life membership. The payment at one time of one hundred ($100) dollars shall constitute a perpetual or endowed membership, and upon the death of any member so paying, the membership shall be held by his eldest son or such other descendant from the ancestor from whom he claims, as he may nominate; in failure of such nomination the Society may decide which of the descendants shall hold membership; Provided, always, That the Society reserves to itself the privilege of rejecting any nomination that may not be acceptable to it. All those holding life or endowed memberships shall be exempt from the payment of the initiation fee and annual dues.

SECTION II.

Permanent Fund.

All life and endowed membership fees, as well as donations which may be paid the Society, shall remain forever for the use of the Society as a Permanent Fund, the income only of which may be expended.

SECTION III.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Society shall be held in the city of Indianapolis, on the 19th day of October (except when that day is a Saturday or Sunday, when the date shall be left to the discretion of the Board of Managers), at which a general election of officers and managers by ballot shall take place. In such election a majority of votes given for any officer or manager shall constitute a choice; but if, on the first ballot, no person shall receive such majority, then a further balloting shall take place, in which a plurality of votes given for any officer or manager shall determine the choice.
